Holistic. Sustainable. Natural.

Health and environment are one at BKK ProVita

Humans need a health environment for their health. We are a part of nature. It is only in combination with nature that we can balance body, spirit and soul. That is our firm belief, here at BKK ProVita. Therefore, we not only support holistic treatment methods, but also the protection of the environment.

BKK ProVita is:

- the first climate-neutral health insurance;
- the first health insurance with a common good balance sheet for sustainable and social benefits;
- the first health insurance which supports a vegetable-based nutrition.

You can do a lot to live healthy. Caring for yourself is the key to well-being. We are your strong insurance partner and support your health with an holistic approach.

Did you know?

A common good balance sheet is proof of our ecological & social commitment.

We print on sustainable paper.

We consequently buy green electricity

We act in a climateneutral manner.

We support vegetable-based nutrition.
